Consent for the Use of Student Essay for Website and Classroom

There are times when instructors need to access and share student work with other instructors so they can better design course assignments and pedagogical practices, or even provide examples to other students. You, the student, have the right to grant access to your work or to deny access for these purposes.

This form, therefore, allows you to state whether or not you agree to make your work available to share with other instructors. Your name will NOT be associated with your work; you will be given a pseudonym to protect your identity. Please carefully read the options below and mark your decision. Thank you.

---

I, ____________________________________________________ (please print first and last name), DO give permission for my written work from this course to be used for model-writing in future classes. I understand that my essay/project will be accessible to all teachers in the first-year writing program and may be shared with students in OSU’s first-year writing program as a model of student writing.

I hold that the ideas, theories, interpretations, arguments, and phrases used in my writing remain my own, and where they are unique to me may not be represented as another person's thoughts or words.

I understand my name will not be associated with my work; a pseudonym will be assigned to ensure my anonymity.

OR

I, ____________________________________________________ (please print first and last name), DO NOT give permission for my work from this course to be used or referenced.

Signed: _________________________________ Date: _______________________________

Printed name: __________________________ Class and Instructor: ______________________